ABOUT

Hello! I'm Shi Wei, a Singapore-based illustrator with 4 years of commercial experience creating versatile visual work across space visualisation, storyboards, comics, murals, concept art, and fine art. I'm proactive, adaptable, and a keen learner, and I'm currently expanding my skill set into graphic design and social media content creation. I enjoy collaborating with multidisciplinary teams to bring ideas to life, and I bring strong creative thinking, reliability, and 100% commitment to every project. I'm confident that I can bring value to your company through both strong execution and a collaborative, reliable working style!
